Division Commendation

It shall be known to all that on this 29th Day of May, 2009 Patrol Officer Christopher Mulligan is Commended at the DIVISION LEVEL for his dedicated work and professional performance of police duties while serving in the capacity of Police Officer for the citizens and community of North Kingstown, Rhode Island.

On January 27, 2008 Patrol Officer Christopher Mulligan received a broadcast from dispatch to be on the lookout for a possible drunk-driver. Patrol Officer Christopher Mulligan responded to the area of the boat ramp located at the end of Intrepid Dr, near where the suspect vehicle was last observed. Upon arrival Patrol Officer Mulligan located a vehicle matching the vehicle described as the suspect vehicle. An 18 year-old male subject and his female passenger had just exited the vehicle. Patrol Officer Mulligan observed signs of possible criminal activity on the part of the male party. He then secured permission to search the male subjects vehicle at which time he found that the subject was illegally in possession of prescription medication prescribed for someone else .

Patrol Officer Mulligan placed the subject under arrest for the illegal prescription drugs. He then conducted an extensive follow-up investigation and learned that the prescription drugs had been stolen out of a motor vehicle in an area of town that had experienced numerous breaking and entering into vehicles. As a result of Patrol Officer Mulligan's arrest, Detective Division was able to obtain a confession from the suspect who admitted to numerous larcenies form motor vehicles.

Patrol Officer Christopher Mulligan exemplifies the professionalism and dedication to duty the North Kingstown Police Department prides itself on. It is with a great sense of pride that I hereby recognize your achievement:
